Course Overview

These qualifications are aimed at practising or aspiring managers and leaders who are typically accountable to a senior manager or business owner. The primary role of a practising or aspiring manager and leader is to lead and manage individuals and teams to deliver aims and objectives in line with organisational strategy. Role and responsibilities may also include, but are not limited to, developing teams and individuals, creating operational plans, planning and managing projects, managing change, managing finance, resources and identifying new approaches to business activities, managing quality and continuous improvement as well as managing the human resources function.

The qualifications have been designed for practising or aspiring managers in roles such as:

- Operations manager
- Divisional manager
- Departmental manager
- Regional manager
- Specialist manager

This course is classroom based and sessions happen 9.30am – 12.30am on Friday mornings roughly every month.

To study the Diploma, you must have the Award and Certificate qualifications first.
